FROM LUTHER

“Your suffering is not the cleanness itself, and you are not declared clean in the sight of God because of it. But it does serve to drive man to grasp and hold the Word with a better and firmer grip, in order that in this way faith may become active. The Word is itself the purification of the heart if the heart adheres to it and remains faithful to it.” (commenting on today’s Gospel: John 15:1-8, in Luther’s Works – volume 24, p. 211)

PRESCHOOL 2024-2025

Registration is now open for everyone for the 2024-2025 school year. Our Pre-K class is now full, but we still have openings for the 3’s class. If you know someone who might be interested, please share this information with them. Preschool brochures and registration forms can be found in the Narthex. If you have any questions, please contact the Director, Rebecca Shanton, at the preschool, 317-468-0610, by text 260-343-1602, or by email rshanton.faithpreschool@gmail.com

REMEMBERING THE SAINTS

St. Philip and St. James, Apostles (May 1) – St. Philip is mentioned in the biblical lists of the apostles (see Matthew 10:3; Mark 3:18; Luke 6:14; Acts 1:13), but only in John’s Gospel is more told about him. Philip was from Bethsaida in Galilee and was one of the first disciples called by Jesus after Peter and Andrew. Philip also was instrumental in bringing Nathanael to Jesus (John 1:43-51). It was to Philip that Jesus posed the question about where to buy bread to feed five thousand men (John 6:5). During Holy Week, Philip with Andrew brought some inquiring Greeks to Jesus (John 12:20-22). And on Maundy Thursday evening, Philip asked Jesus to show the Father to him and to the rest of the disciples (John 14:8). According to tradition, Philip went to labor in Phrygia and was buried there.

St. James was a son of Alphaeus and was also called “the Younger” (to distinguish him from James, the son of Zebedee, who was also called “the Elder,” and whose festival day is July 25). His mother: Mary, was one of the faithful women who stood at the cross of Jesus (Matthew 27:56; Mark 15:40). James is mentioned in the same apostolic lists as Philip, but there is no other mention of him in the New Testament. There is also no information regarding his field of labor or the circumstances of his death, except that he may have been martyred by being sawed in two.

Collect: Almighty God, Your Son revealed Himself to Philip and James and gave them the knowledge of everlasting life. Grant us perfectly to know Your Son: Jesus Christ, to be the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and steadfastly to walk in the way that leads to eternal life.

Athanasius of Alexandria, Pastor and Confessor (May 2) – Athanasius was born in Alexandria in Egypt around AD 295. He served as a church leader in a time of great controversy and ecclesiastical disagreement. At the Council of Nicaea in AD 325, Athanasius defended Christian orthodoxy against the proponents of the Arian heresy, which denied the full divinity of Jesus Christ. During his forty-five year tenure as Bishop of Alexandria, Athanasius wrote numerous works that defended orthodox teaching.

His enemies had him exiled no less than five times; on two occasions he was even almost murdered. Yet Athanasius remained steadfast, and ended his days restored fully to his ecclesiastical responsibilities. The Athanasian Creed, though not composed by Athanasius, is named in his honor because it confesses the doctrinal orthodoxy he championed throughout his life.

Collect: Almighty God, You gave to Your servant Athanasius special gifts of grace to understand and teach the truth of Jesus Christ. Grant that by this teaching we may know You, the one true God, and receive eternal life.

Friedrich Wyneken, Pastor and Missionary (May 4) – Friedrich Wyneken is one of the founding fathers of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, along with C.F.W. Walther and Wilhelm Sihler. Born in 1810 in Germany, he came to Baltimore in 1838 and shortly thereafter accepted a call to be the pastor of congregations in Friedheim and Fort Wayne, Indiana. Supported by Wilhelm Loehe’s mission society, Wyneken served as an itinerant missionary in Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan, particularly among Native Americans. Together with Loehe and Sihler he founded Concordia Theological Seminary in 1846 in Fort Wayne. He later served as the second President of the LC-MS during a period of significant growth (1850-64). His leadership strongly influenced the confessional character of the LC-MS and its commitment to an authentic Lutheran witness.

Collect: Almighty and everlasting God, we thank You for Your servant Friedrich, whom You called to preach the Gospel in America. Raise up in this and every land evangelists and heralds of Your kingdom, that Your Church may proclaim the unsearchable riches of our Savior: Jesus Christ.

STEWARDSHIP

April 28, 2024 — Fifth Sunday of Easter

John 15:2 — “Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.”

God is interested in the fruit that we bear in good works, and He even prunes us so that we may bring forth more fruit. Trusting in our Lord’s work for us, being graced by grace into His vine, we desire to be more like Him, to grow into His image. That’s growth in fruit bearing — and it always comes with some pruning.

ZION COUNSELING CENTER

We are pleased to announce the opening of the Counseling Center at Zion Lutheran Church, New Palestine. Zion Counseling is a ministry where members of the community are welcome to explore Christ-centered individual, adolescent (10+), marriage, family, and group counseling.

This ministry handles needs, goals, and targeted growth in a Christ-centered counseling atmosphere. The counseling ministry is well equipped to handle the treatment of anxiety, depression, marriage conflict, sex addiction, trauma, acute stress, PTSD, neurodevelopment, behavioral issues, parenting, self-esteem, spiritual formation, pre-marital, infidelity, women’s issues, life transitions, relationships, familial issues, divorce, blended family, and grief.

“Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing, and perfect will.”

Romans 12:2

Saints on Stage Present Then There Was One...

Join us for this family-friendly, slapstick comedy set in the 1920s. Ten strangers arrive at a mysterious island mansion. But who will survive the weekend? You’ll laugh till your sides hurt! It will be bloody good show!

Worship Anew!

April 28 — Fifth Sunday of Easter

Psalm 150; 1 John 4:1-21; John 15:1-8

“Vine, Branches, and Fruit”

Sermon Text: John 15:5

Rev. Shayne Jonker

Jesus is the Vine, you are the branches, and the Father is the vinedresser. That is today's picture of your union with Christ through faith from the Gospel according to St. John. Joined to Jesus in faith you are alive and fruitful, as living branches joined to a living vine. Apart from Jesus, you are dead and fruitless.

KFUO RADIO

For churches outside the St. Louis area for the week of April 28:

KFUO Radio, the broadcast voice of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, shares Christ for you anytime, anywhere on KFUO.org via worship services, Bible and theology studies, practical talk programs, and sacred music. Lutheran Summer Music

We are looking forward to the summer with great anticipation. We are so excited that enrollment for LSM 2024 is already over 75% full.

Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival is the nations premier faith based music academy for high school students. Students come together from all over the country to immerse themselves in joyful music-making and build a supportive community, living together on a Lutheran college campus. Students receive advanced musical instruction through lessons, and elective classes. In the evenings, students attend recitals, evening prayer services, and social events.

The full month session is June 30-July 28, the half session is June 30-July 14 at Valparaiso University. Call Mary Lynn Mennicke, Dean and Director of Admissions, Lutheran Summer Music Academy and Festival at 612-879-9555, ext. 5, or text her at the same number, or contact her LSMacademy.org.
